MINUTES

Tracy Romzek moved, and Kris Koeppe seconded the motion to approve the minutes of the June 3, 2026, Sustainability Committee meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS

The new committee members were welcomed to the committee by Chair Kris Koeppe.

OLD BUSINESS

Nick Sisto gave a community gardens update and distributed the July Community Gardens Newsletter. Both gardens are in good condition as the gardening season continues. All plots are being used and gardener issues with hose lengths have been addressed. Nick Sisto conveyed the September/October timeline for the Schildt Park Gardens construction project. Kris Koeppe updated the new committee members on the recycling decal project. The committee discussed reaching out to Outagamie County for information on their decals.

NEW BUSINESS

Kris Koeppe informed the committee on the Village's past efforts to create Dark Skies. He suggested inviting a member of the Dark Skies WI staff to the village to present on possible solutions the Village could implement. Michelle Mahlik introduced composting as a new discussion topic and suggested the Village reach out to Greener Bay, a composting company in Green Bay to introduce a composting service in Fox Crossing.

OTHER BUSINESS

None
